WHAT WE DO

Fambro LSA works with cotton producers and gins to administer USDA cotton loan programs including:

- Processing Marketing Assistance Loans (MAL)
- Handling Loan Deficiency Payments (LDP)
- Managing Loan Redemptions
- Administering CCC Cotton and Seed Cotton Loans

ABOUT FAMBRO LSA

Fambro LSA is a privately owned company licensed by the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) to administer cotton loan programs for producers. As an authorized Loan Servicing Agent, we help growers access USDA cotton financing programs.

COTTON LOANS PROCESS

1. Grower Signs Up
   Grower signs up certified acres at their control county office before deadline for current crop.

2. Submit Information
   Grower submits information (name, address, SSN/Tax ID & control county) along with documentation (FSA-211, CCC-10, A-5 Attachment) to LSA to determine eligibility.

3. Processing Begins
   Once eligibility has been determined, the timeframe is usually a 48-hour return to the grower.

4. Loan Processed
   Loans are processed in accordance with CCC guidelines and USDA regulations.

Our team has the tools, knowledge, and experience to efficiently process loans while ensuring compliance with CCC guidelines.

CHARGES

We calculate both fee options automatically and charge the lower amount.

$7.50 per loan plus $.90 per bale

OR

.5% of the gross loan amount

For LDPs:

No. of Bales	Fee Amounts
1	$0.25
2 through 6	$0.25 plus $0.15 for each bale over 1
7 or more	$1 plus $0.10 for each bale over 6

FAQS

What is the EWR Holder ID the bales should be sent to?
Holder ID: Z006703

Do the required documents need re-signed every year?
No, as long as the entity name stays the same, all forms that are filled out (FSA 211, CCC 10, and A5) only need to be completed.

What do I select for holdership when sending bales to Fambro?
When sending bales to Fambro, select “transfer to Fambro.” Do not transfer to CCC and do not transfer to loan.

Where can I get a recap of the bales sent to Fambro for the crop year?
Visit fambrolsa.com and request a log in.

Can I sign the Power of Attorney document on behalf of someone who has given me Power of Attorney?
No. On the FSA-211, the individual must sign the document. For example, if a farmer has Power of Attorney for a landlord, the farmer cannot sign the FSA-211 for the landlord. The landlord must sign the document directly.
